Your music must be in order and ready to be played at a moments notice. All music will be returned at the end of the season. Consider your music a class text book. Failure to return the music in reasonable condition will bring a fine of up to $30.00 against you. Make your music last.

By auditioning and participating in this activity you are making a commitment to the other members in the group and your school. Make sure that you have checked the dates for the games and that you are available for them as you need to be. Unexcused absences are unacceptable.
